

The well known maker of our regular $3.50 shoe made for us 2,500 pairs on a special order. From his letter-

"All outer soles are waterproof, adding materially to the wear. The upper leathers are practically the same as in your regular goods. Heels and counters solid as in regular goods. Smaller details exactly the same-they are made by the same hands." "A great many of the shoes are fully as good as your regular $3.50 stock, and some are not quite

"The only reason that we could make the low price on them was that it was a time when we were rather dull and could keep more of our hands

SHOT HIS WIFE'S PARAMOUR.

HUSBAND BURST INTO THE ROOM WHERE LOVER KEPT HER.

Both Walked Out, Leaving a Corpse on the Bed, but She Says She Heard no Report and Supposed That a Beating Had Been Given, but no Murder Done.

Just before midnight on Saturday, George McDowell, who works in a stock yard in Harrison, N. J., went to the home of Mrs Mary Kenny at 414 Fourth street in that city and proceeded uptsairs to a room in which his wife, Mary, has been living for some time with Walter Ramsey, another stock yard man, 45 years old. What happened there is known only to McDowell and his wife. A shot was heard and a few minutes later McDowell and his wife came out of the room and left the house. Other tenants looked into the room and saw Ramsey lying dead upon the bed with a bullet wound in his left temple.

The police were notified and a search was made for the couple in Newark and Harrison Late yesterday morning Mrs. McDowell walked into the First Precinct station at Newark and was taken to police headquarters, where she said that she had walked around Newark with her husband until 5 o'clock in the morning and then left him in the street and went to a friend's house where she went to sleep.

She said that she did not know that Ramsey was shot. She was sitting in a rocking chair reading a paper when her husband knocked at the door and she asked who was there. He did not answer, but burst open the door, which was not locked. She says that he rushed into the room where Ramsey was alseep and she thought that Ramsey was alseep and she thought that he beat Ramsey, but she did not hear any shot fired. Then her husband came out and told her to put on her street clothes and go with him. They walked to Newark and spent most of the night in the street.

Her husband said nothing about shooting Ramsey and didn't seem to know that he was dead.

A detective was sent to the house in Newark where Mrs McDowell said she went at 5 o'clock and learned that she appeared there at 1 o'clock in the morning just about the time she would have arrived if she had walked there after leaving the house in Harrison.

This was taken to indicate that she was trying to shield her husband and give him a chance to get away. They have a boy 9 years old, who is at the point of death at her sister's home in Newark.

McDowell and his wife have not lived together for many months.

mcDowell and his wife have not hved to-gether for many months.

Three weeks ago McDowell found Ram-sey with Mrs. McDowell in a place in Green street, Newark, and beat Ramsey until he was insensible. He then threatened to shoot a negro who attempted to stop him. Mrs. McDowell is a comely woman, 35 years old, and has many respectable r la-tives in Newark. Her husband has s) far Denbosky-Jacobs Marriage.

The politicians of the East Side were out in force yesterday at the marriage of Edward Denbosky, son of Morris Denbosky, one of the wealthiest real estate owners on the East Side, to Essie Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Jacobs of 51 East 105th street. The ceremony took place yesterday afternoon in Vienna Hall, in East Fiftyeighth street, and a large reception followed eighth street, and a large reception followed. The Hon. Florrie Sullivan, the Hon. Phil Wissig, "Little Tim" Sullivan and Christie Sullivan went to the hall in an automobile. Assemblyman Isidor Cohn of "de Ate," who proposes to tax bachelors and old maids, received an ovation when he entered the hall. "I have proved that I am in favor of marriage," he announced to the 300 guests present.

in favor of marriage," he announced to the 300 guesta present.

Then it was recollected that Cohn is a bachelor, and the young women present went for him. All the available diamonds on the East Side added brilliancy to the affair. The Moe Levy Association, with its enormous possessions of sparkling gems, was all there. The father of the bridegroom presented him with a certified check for $10,000, which was displayed to all the guests. to all the guests.

Diamond Charlie Solomon wore his famous patent leather dancing pumps, which are adorned with diamond buckles. Among the others present were Magistrate Tighe of Brooklyn, Congressman-elect Timothy D. Sullivan, the Hon. Julius Harburger, Senator Fitzgerald, Alderman Porges, Assemblyman Rosenstein, City Gerk Scully, Alderman Tom Foley, the Hon. Pat Keenan and Senator Foley.

MRS. DONNELLY'S AIM POOR.

Threw a Coffee Cup at Her Husband. It Is Said, and Hit Two-Year-Old Child.

The Great Housefurnishing Event of The Spring Is Announced Today---

The February Furniture Sale

ROM the woodman's axe, ringing in the forest, to the exhibition of the product of the world's best furniture makers on our floors today, is a far cry. It is a specimen of the magic of American progress. It is an evidence of the vast possibilities and diverse achievements of American furniture manufacturers.

It Is a Remarkable Exhibition

Remarkable in its scope, its variety, including every kind of furniture required in the home. Remarkable for the excellence of workmanship, of design—marvellous in the values offered.

The present sale shows vast progress from that of a year ago—both in variety and economy. Conditions favored us, and we made the most of them. The best of the sale is not confined to a few small lines. Superlative values are offered in Parlor Furniture, Dining-Room Furniture. Bedroom Furniture and Brass Bedsteads.

The Whole House Is Provided For

in economies of the most decisive sort. Of course, not all the furniture on our floors is under-price. We had to retain the regular stock, and provide space for new goods that are already coming for the Spring. But the Sale goods hold the lion's share. They are seen everywhere; and the price tags tell plainly where the reductions are. Perhaps your house is not ready to-day-may not be ready this month-no matter. Make your selections now; profit by the splendid economies of the Sale, and We Will Deliver the Furniture When You Are Ready

Wife of School Trustee Kemple Was Picking Coal From Empty Cars.

Mrs. Augusta Kempie, wife of former School Trustee Charles Kempie of 229 East Twenty-third street, Bayonne, was beheaded by a train yesterday at Constable Hook. She was picking coal from empty cars on the Lehigh Valley Railroad tracks and had boarded one car just as several loaded cars were shunted down grade. The loaded cars were shunted down grade. The loaded cars collided with the car in which Mrs. Kempie was and she was knocked out and beneath the wheels, which passed over her neck. It is said there was no reason why Mrs. Kempie should get her coal in the manner she did when she met her death.

HEBREW INSTITUTE SUCCESS.

Gratifying Report of its Technical Classes Made to the Members.

The members of the Hebrew Technical Institute held their annual meeting yeserday at the institute in Stuyvesant street and e'ected these directors: S. Morrill Panner, Benjamin Guggenheim, Mrs. Ludwig Dreyfuss, Gustav Eckstein, Louis Kahn, Abraham Eckstein, Samuel Fleischman and Mrs. Samuel L. Beer. Last year 211 pupils were enrolled and a night class in tool making added. The last has been so successful as to make it probable that several other night classes will be added. The attendance has broken the record.

WOMAN BEHEADED BY A TRAIN. DRANK CUP OF COCOA AND DIED. Cantharis Poisoning Suspected as Cause of Young Woman's Death.

The police of the Fifth street station are nvestigating the death of Anna Girschinski 23 years old, of 123 East Third street. Dr. A. Levein of 106 Rivington street was alled to attend the young woman on Wednesday evening last, and the symptoms indicated to him that she was suffering from cantharis poisoning. She appeared to improve under his treatment until Saturday night, when her condition became serious. She died at 40'clock dition became serious. She died at 40 clock yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. John Weisberg, in whose apartments the woman died, told the police that she came to live with them on Wednesday morning last. Shortly after her arrival she made a cup of cocca and drank it. Almost immediately after that she complained of feeling ill and her condition became so serious later in the day that a doctor was called. The cocca which the woman drank was bought from a grocer in the neighborhood. The police have some of it and will have it analyzed. Coroner Goldenkranz has ormalyzed. Coroner Goldenkranz has or iered an autopsy.

Fire in a Syracuse Hotel. STRACUSE, Feb. 1 .- Fire did a $20,000

lamage to the Mowry Hotel early this morning. Jacob Smith, the night watchmorning. Jacob Smith, the night watch-man, set all the annunciator bells ringing and all the guests escaped from the building, many of them slightly clad. The fire origi-nated in the boiler room and made its way up the rear shaft. Andrews Bros.' grocery store and Whelan's cigar store were slightly damaged. All of the electric lights in the hotel went out and the guests had to grope their way to the stairways, directed by the firemen.

Pleads Gullty to Savey Hotel Theft. Clarence Dyer, a bellboy at the Hotel Savoy, pleaded guilty in the Jefferson Market police court yesterday morning to stealing a $200 diamond ring from Edger J. Hesslein, a guest. He was held for tr.al. The boy lives at 231 West Nineteenth street.
